

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

A drilling fluid for use in high oil viscosity formations containing tar, sand and oil entrained therein. The drilling fluid can be comprised of a polymer in an amount from between .05% and 5% by volume, a solvent in an amount from between 1% and 20% by volume and de-emulsifier in an amount from between .05% and 10% by volume.